

Viselio is a fast-growing travel start-up. We are building a digital platform to help our customers obtain their travel visa online, securely and efficiently. In order to support future growth in several European countries, we are currently recruiting an enthusiastic and passionate

Business Development Intern (German) (6 - 12 months internship in Belgrade, Serbia)

Your responsibilities:

- Take part in selling Viselio products to corporations and travel management companies
- Take part in the preparation of sales activities like fairs, forums & exhibitions
- Actively research the market for new sales opportunities
- Maintain the CRM and keep it up to date with accurate sales information
- Assist local sales management with CRM management and appointment booking
- Maintain sales documentation & sales related promotional material

What are the requirements?

- Current or recent studies in Tourism, Business or similar fields
- Outgoing and engaging personality with extraordinary drive and energy
- Languages: Native German, proficient English
- Time and dedication for 6 - 12 months full time internship

Why Viselio?

We offer:

- Dynamic, friendly and international working environment
- Modern and cosy office
- Flexible working hours
- True startup experience
- Paid accommodation

Starting date: ASAP

If you are responsible, communicative and organized and think we are a match, we would love to meet you. Please send us your CV written in English including your references to jobs@viselio.com. We are looking forward to hearing from you!